Case Competition Application

Scholarship recipients are encouraged to enter a unique case presentation within the Case Competition that focuses on a complex procedure, complication management, or advanced/novel technique in treating complex arrhythmia. The Program Committee will judge the Submitted Cases, and the authors of the three best cases will present their work during the Case Competition Session. The overall winner receives a $1,500 honorarium and a plaque to commemorate their accomplishment, and the runners-up will each receive a $500 honorarium.

*While not required, entering a Case into the Competition is encouraged. Participation is limited to on-site attendees who qualify for a Scholarship. Cases may be submitted during the Scholarship Application Submission or separately (the Case Competition Submission must be received no later than October 11, 2024).

Participation Criteria

- 1) Participation is limited to on-site attendees who qualify for a Scholarship.
- 2) Submit an Interesting Case in abstract format by October 11, 2024, focusing on a complex procedure, management of a complication, or advanced/novel technique in treating a complex arrhythmia. The submitted Case Abstract should not exceed 750 words, and up to 5 images/figures may be submitted with your abstract, while not required.
- 3) The Program Committee will review all submissions and select the Best three Cases to present during the Summit.
- 4) Applicants will be notified of the decision by October 18, 2024.
- 5) The Case Competition Session will feature 10-minute case presentations from the three finalists and corresponding review discussions between the presenters and panelists after each case presentation. (A maximum of 10 PowerPoint Slides may be used for the Case presentations.) The overall winner will be announced after all Case presentations.
 - The Summit Organizer, MediaSphere Medical, will coordinate the participation of the 3 Case Competition finalists.
 - The overall winner receives a $1,500 honorarium and a plaque to commemorate their accomplishment, and the runners-up will each receive a $500 honorarium.
 - Peer-reviewed Journal Publication and PubMed Central® (PMC) Indexing: The three finalists will have their case study published in the double-blind peer-reviewed publication, The Journal of Innovations in Cardiac Rhythm Management™, and indexed in PubMed Central® (PMC).
