

November 1-3, 2024 • Sheraton Pentagon City Hotel

Fellows Scholarship Application

Candidates must complete and submit the application with supporting documentation to be considered. The Course Organizers will review completed applications on a first-come, first-served basis and notify applicants of a decision within one week upon receipt and review. Applications will remain open, and the Organizers will issue decisions until all available spots are filled. Accepted applications will receive an acceptance letter via email, including important information about travel arrangements and hotel accommodations at the Sheraton Pentagon City Hotel, 900 South Orme Street, Arlington, Virginia.

Scholarships include:

- Registration, hotel accommodations, and travel expense reimbursement.

Scholarship Eligibility Criteria

Fellows: Fellows currently enrolled in (or entering) a clinical cardiac electrophysiology fellowship program or Cardiology Fellows tracking toward Electrophysiology who have not attended the Summit on-site in a previous year. A limited number of international fellows' scholarships are available.

International Scholarship Applicants: We require proof of an approved travel visa before officially approving your scholarship.

Scholarship Application Submission, Review, and Selection

Please complete the application along with all requested documentation and return via email to: info@epfellowssummit.com. Subject: EP Fellows Summit & Arrhythmia Program Scholarships.

Case Competition: *Optional. While strongly encouraged, entering a case into the case competition is not a prerequisite for eligibility for a Scholarship. However, Case Competition participation is limited to Scholarship Applicants. Please refer to the Case Competition page on the website for details on participation. You may submit your Case during your Scholarship Application Submission or separately (no later than October 11, 2024).
